1. What did you learn from our study of "Armageddon" that you did not already know? What one change do you purpose to make in your life as a result of this study?
2. Jesus declared in His "Olivet Discourse" (Mt. 24, Mk. 13 & Lk. 21) many terrifying events that will occur on earth prior to His return. Describe your emotions to these apocalyptic events.
3. Will the Battle of Armageddon be the world's final battle and usher in, at last, eternal peace (Rev. 20:7-9)?
4. What other names are given in the Bible for Armageddon? Explain what they mean.
5. What practical applications and principles can you apply your own personal "battles" based on this study?

Revelation 16:13-16

And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs coming out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. ¹⁴ For they are spirits of demons, performing signs, which go out to the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. ¹⁵ “Behold, I am coming as a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame.” ¹⁶ And they gathered them together to the place called in Hebrew, Armageddon.

IV. Why?

“Men since the beginning of time have sought peace. Various methods through the ages have attempted to devise an international process to prevent or settle disputes between nations. From the very start workable methods were found insofar as individual citizens were concerned, but the mechanics of an instrumentality of larger international scope have never been successful. Military alliances, balances of power, leagues of nations, all in turn failed, leaving the only path to be by way of the crucible of war. We have had our last chance. If we do not now devise some greater and more equitable system, Armageddon will be at our door. The problem basically is theological and involves a spiritual recrudescence and improvement of human character that will synchronize with our almost matchless advances in science, art, literature and all material and cultural developments of the past two thousand years. It must be of the spirit if we are to save the flesh.”

Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers.
